LOCAL JOTTINGS.

The new Township Committee will organize on May 2.

Brookdale voters were conspicuous by their absence on Tuesday.

William L. Johnson, the Town Clerk

elect, will hold office for two years.

The railroad company is making improvements at the Glen Ridge station.

J. W. Snedeker has gone on a business trip to Washington, D. C., and the South.

An infant child in the family of August

Rauswein died on Thursday from croup.

Dr. Harry E. Richards has been to Chicago during the week on a business trip.

There will be special musical services

in Watessing M. E. Church to-morrow night.

Mrs. Benjamin Wey of Catskill, N. Y.,

is visiting Mrs. Frederick Crane of Franklin Street.

The regular meeting of the present

Township Committee will be held on Monday night.

The engagement is announced of

Charles Kopf to Miss Marie Schmidt,

both of Bloomfield.

One machine is ready for use in the paper mill. A small quantity of paper was made yesterday.

A. J. King's new house on Belleville

Avenue has been completed and the grounds are being laid out.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert of

Franklin Street will celebrate their golden wedding on the 18th inst.

Extensive improvements are being made to the residence of D. G. Garra-brant, on Williamson Avenue.

Fred Storms, jr., has purchased the house No. 56 Maple Street, formerly owned by the late William Crapes.

The Star Athletic defeated the Ferry

boys of Caldwell, last Saturday, on the Glen Ridge grounds; score 14 to 3.

If the grounds are fit to play on, the Watessing Stars will play the Brighton

Stars this afternoon at Watessing.

Steps have been taken for the formation of an Essex County Law and Order

League. This town will be included.

The Star Athletic base-ball team would like to hear from all clubs of fourteen years. Address James Path.

Henry Russell and family of Washington Avenue are about to remove to Philadelphia, where they will locate permanently.

Oscar and Charles Michel leave today for Lockport, N. Y., to visit their brother, the Rev. Arthur Michel, pastor of one of the leading churches in that city.

Engineer James E. Owen is cited as authority for the statement that the recent surveys made through Brookdale are in the interest of the Delaware,

Lackawanna and Western Railway Company.

Robert Beach of Walkill, N. Y., a brother of James C. Beach, has been in town during the week. He took part in the musical services in connection with the opening of the new Westminster

Church.

Robert S. Rydd has received the official appointment as member of the

Essex County Democratic County Committee. Mr. Rydd will have the appointment of the township Executive Committee.

The officials of the Montclair Congregational Church held a meeting during the week to take action on the erection of a Mission Chapel on Bloomfield

Avenue, near the Bloomfield line, on property presented for the purpose by James C. Beach of this town.

At the Republican Convention last Saturday evening a resolution was adopted to have delegates chosen on the vote for Town Committee-men-at-Large instead of for the Commissioners of Appeal, as formerly. The delegates from each ward will therefore be as follows: First Ward, 21; Second Ward, 19; Third Ward, 25.

Post & Moffat, the auctioneers, conducted a well-attended sale of horses at Dodd's stable yesterday morning. A bay gelding sold for $80, a team of grays for $240, a bay mare for $95, and an iron-gray mare for $115. A sale of seventy-five horses will shortly take place, and $2,000 worth of crockery will be sold in Spragg's building next week.

Some of the local politicians may boast of their fighting qualities, others of their hustling ability, and others of their mouthing capacity, but it must be conceded by all that Thomas McGowan is by long odds the most astute politician in this town. His ways are calm and peaceful. His feet never get ahead of his wisdom, and his voice is not heard on the street corner. Mr. McGowan was undoubtedly a moving spirit in the good work of last Tuesday, and the thanks of the public are due to him. Young men who expect to become politicians will do well to take advantage of an available object lesson.

Seminary Notes.

Paul Quarder, one the students at the German Seminary received a call on Thursday from the Congregational Society to go to Chicago, and await orders to act as a missionary in the Western States. He has accepted the call and left here on Thursday.

The Turning Society of the Seminary has been reorganized with sixteen members, who exercise on all pleasant days. A great improvement has been made by the students in the appearance of the seminary grounds during the past week. A terrace has been built along the Liberty Street sidewalk.

Reception to the Rev. Dr. Spelmeyer.

The ladies of the Central Methodist Church, Newark, gave a very enjoyable reception on Wednesday night, in honor of the return for the third time of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Spelmeyer to the pastorate. The chapel was prettily decorated with flowers and bunting, and a floral design bearing the words "Welcome Again." The room was thronged during the entire evening, there being about 500 people present.

Montclair's Ball Club.

The positions of the players on the base-ball nine of the Montclair Athletic Club will be as follows: Pitcher, Comiskey; catcher, Hebbard; first base, Schalk; second base, Snyder; third base, Leonard; shortstop, Small; right field, Carman; centre field, Place; left field, Thomas.

Water For Montclair.

The Montclair water main connected with the East Jersey main has been tested as far as Day's store in Brookdale and found to be in good order. The reservoir on the mountain top will be used in connection with the new system to supply houses in the more elevated part of the town.

Residents of Caldwell and Verona are much troubled by thieving Italian rag pickers from Newark. They tie a horse and wagon in some obscure place and then make a raid through people's yards picking up everything they can carry off.

W. C. Rinearson, general passenger agent of the New York and Greenwood Lake Railway, will reside this summer in Glenwood avenue, near the Prospect street depot of the road.

"Essex Fells," is the name given to a large strip of territory, which is being improved by a land company, and which the Caldwell Railroad is being extended into.

Ninety Per Cent.

Since women have been brought more or less prominently before the public in recent years, their ability as organizers has been the subject of much comment. A woman enters the field of usefulness much better equipped than appearances sometimes indicate. As mistress of a well appointed home in which the wheels of good management turn with ease, she receives a course of military discipline, the tactics of which fit her to fill many a broader and higher sphere of action, and out of one hundred such women it will be found that ninety per cent. of them wear the Coward Shoe from 270 and 272 Greenwich Street, New York.
